

Sermon Title: THE DAUGHTERS OF JERUSALEM

Date: March 23, 2025 - Luke 23:27-31

Central Idea: God does not permit impenitence to go unpunished.
Are you refusing to repent of sin?

Introduction:

Jesus will engage in more conversation before He breathes His last, but these words constitute His final public address.

A large crowd follows the procession as it makes its way to the crucifixion site of the place called “The Skull.” Some have come to mock Jesus, but there are others who have come to support Him. The latter are “mourning and lamenting for him” (v. 27). It is a pitiful scene.

I. The Crowd of People v. 27

II. The Daughters of Jerusalem v. 28

III. “The Days Are Coming” vv. 29-31

1. The destruction of Jerusalem—Luke 21:20-24

2. The final day of judgment—Revelation 6:12-17

3. Common proverb v. 31

Conclusion: The women of Jerusalem needed to know that if all they saw was that Jesus needed their sympathy, then they had misunderstood Him altogether. He was carrying the judgment of God against the sin of the world. Unless they found a hiding place in Him, no amount of sympathy would save them from the events of the future. And the same is true for us!
